

A Song for Christmas
Walk on, little donkey

(May be used as a solo - or choir, as indicated)

H.D.

Howard Davies

In a gentle, flowing style ♩ = 100

mp

Verse 1: Women unison 1. Walk on, lit - tle don - key! The Verse 2: Men unison on, lit - tle don - key! The Verse 3 All voices unison on, lit - tle don - key! Now road may be long, But God fash - ioned you to be stea - dy and strong; Your maid - en you bear 'cross val - ley and mount - ain, is gen - tle and fair. She Beth - le - hem's near! The town where the King of all kings must ap - pear; Who feet will not stum - ble, your cour - age not dim; God watch - es each move that you car - ries with - in her a trea - sure un - told: The dear Son of God come to comes as a ba - by, yet soon as a man Will die on a cross for our

4

7

2 10

ALL VOICES - UNISON

make! _____ So be not dis- turbed at the ter - rors of night, Nor earth! _____ So walk on with con - fi - dence, stea - dy and sure! The sins. _____ Walk on, lit - tle don - key, though hum - ble your part, Re -

Red.

13

v. 1 WOMEN v. 2. Men V. 3: ALL ar - rows that fly in the day! _____ day of God's com - ing draws near; _____ } God's an - gels have charge to joice in the task that is yours! _____

Red.

16

1.2.

watch o - ver you, { And are guard - ing each step that you take.
 At this breath - tak - ing time of Christ's birth.
 On this night when God's dra - ma be - 19

mp

3.

Fine

MEN: Unison 2. Walk gins!
 ALL: Unison 3. Walk

rit.