

Appendix 3 - Session 2

LIFE MINISTRY VALUE STATEMENTS

Examples:

- I value family – they are God’s gift to me.
- I value people, relationships and team ministry.
- I value the local church as God’s chosen vehicle for spreading the gospel.
- I value ministry among the marginalised and disadvantaged.
- I value my relationship with God through Christ.
- I value openness to the Holy Spirit.

Use the subjects below as a focus. Write down life-ministry value statements which reflect what is non-negotiable for you; what is below the Plimsoll line. You may include some subjects which are particularly important to you which are not mentioned here. The list below is not exhaustive. The things about which you will write life ministry value statements, are really important to you; you act on them and affirm them publicly or you strongly desire to.

Subjects:

- Relationships with God/family/specific friends/the lost/church family
- Career
- Personal Development
- Spiritual gifts development
- My passion/hobbies
- Relaxation
- Personal health

Please write down at least five. These need to be personal statements about what you deeply value or deeply want to express as values in your life.
