

The promise of reconciliation begins with the journey of First Nations and non-Indigenous people approaching the cross of Christ where we sit and share our stories; honouring one another as those made in the image of God. United in purpose, we walk away as partners - reconciled people - committed to being agents of reconciliation.

DEFINING THE ICONS

Ochre (brown):	Semi-circle of U's:	Black and white hands:	Footprints:	Blue lines and dots:
Represents Mother Earth	People sitting together	Reaching out to each other	Indigenous and non-Indigenous journey to the cross	People moving away, as partners, reconciled