

All the days planned for me
were written in your book
before I was one day old.
Psalm 139:16

In Thanksgiving to God for

Child's Name

Parent's Name

give thanks to God for the privilege of caring for and nurturing you.

I want you to grow up to be healthy, wise and good, and so promise to keep from you as far as possible, everything which is likely to harm you in body, mind or soul.

I pray that God will bless and keep you throughout your whole life.

I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. Philippians 1:9 -10
