

The Salvation Army Services

The Salvation Army provides all social services without discrimination.

Alcohol and other drug services

If you or someone you know is struggling with alcohol or drugs, we can help.

Each of our services offer a unique program for people experiencing alcohol or drug problems. Our centres welcome people from across the country.

Residential treatment centres, community-based support programs, counselling and withdrawal management services are just some of the options available.

Aged care

Affordable aged care support for older Australians.

Our services include residential aged care centres, retirement living, respite centre and community care services.

We offer support that suits your stage in life - help in the comfort of your own home, maintenance-free lifestyle in our vibrant retirement communities or 24 hour care in our aged care centres.

Disasters and emergencies

Services to help people impacted by disasters - bushfires, floods, cyclones or prolonged drought etc.

In the aftermath of a disaster, it's easy to feel overwhelmed by the enormity of what needs to be done. You don't have to take that journey alone.

The Salvation Army is available to provide advice and clarity, to make sense of what the next steps are and help you regain some control over the situation.

Financial Assistance

Support with immediate basic needs in time of crisis.

With debt, paying rent or even buying food for your family can feel overwhelming. Money troubles may leave people feeling lonely, embarrassed & isolated.

There are services to help you get back on your feet – financial counselling & coaching, no interest loan scheme.

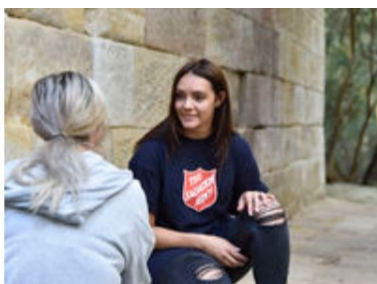

Family and Domestic Violence

Services to support women & children impacted by family/domestic violence.

We offer refuge, children's & parenting services, counselling, men's programs, accommodation & advice to women & children who are experiencing, or who have experienced, family violence.

Services are inclusive to people of all genders, ages, people living with a disability and those from diverse backgrounds.

Housing

We provide various kinds of accommodation – crisis, transitional, long-term housing and rooming house accommodation for singles, couples or families who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

We can help by providing assistance regarding where to go for assessments and the correct applications for housing that is suitable to your needs.

Finding employment

Assistance in finding a job through employment support programs.

We help you by providing services that help with training and upskilling, career counselling, resume writing, interview skills and tips, job search techniques, work trials and work experience, links to local employers, free use of computers & WiFi access.

Salvos Stores

Affordable recycled clothing & furniture.

Our Salvos Stores and op shops specialise in the sale of pre-loved items donated by the public. All our stores sell quality used goods, including furniture, clothing and shoes, homewares and books.

All profits made through our stores go to funding Salvation Army programs and services around the country. By making a purchase at our stores, you are helping us give hope where it's needed most.

Financial Counselling

Free & confidential personalised advice to manage money problems and to avoid future issues.

Our qualified team understands that everyone's finances are different. They can offer you step-by-step advice on how to put your money problems behind you.

You can get help with financial coaching, financial counselling and no-interest loans.

Positive Lifestyle Program

Confidential program to help people change their way of life & reach their potential.

Positive Lifestyle Program is a fully supported eight module course that helps you gain a deeper understanding of who you are as a person.

Topics include self-awareness, anger, depression and loneliness, stress, grief and loss, assertiveness, self-esteem, future directions.

Rural support

Support for farmer or rural worker in a regional or remote area.

Rural chaplains can visit you and provide emotional, spiritual and/or physical help. From practical support on the farm, to sitting down for a cuppa and a chat.

It doesn't matter how remote or isolated you are, our Outback Flying Services enable us to travel far and wide.

Youth services

Safe space for young people to find support in a range of areas.

Our trained youth workers are ready to help you with: crisis and transitional accommodation, educational and vocational programs, accredited workplace training, drug and alcohol support, individualised support and case management, drop-in facilities, counselling/chaplaincy/advocacy support, social skills and life skills (including driving), creative arts and multimedia, legal services and support
