

TYPES OF Myki CARD and MACHINE

All Myki cards look the same, whether it is full fare, concession, child or other types.

Mark your Myki to know what type of card it is – to avoid bringing/using the wrong card. For example, write F on Full Fare card etc.

A Myki card can be both Myki Money or Myki Pass.

Always travel with a valid ticket & supporting concession documents to avoid fines.

Full Fare – adults and international visitors 19 years old and over with no concession entitlement

Concession – you may be eligible if you are a person seeking asylum, pensioners, Seniors Card/Health Care/DHHS Carer card holders, Disability Support Pension & Carer Payment recipients, school/tertiary/international students, or war veterans/widow(er)s

Child – aged 5 to 18, children aged 4 and under travel free

Senior - Victorian Seniors Card holders receive a free Myki, Seniors from other states need to buy a Concession Myki

Myki machines – buy a new full-fare Myki, balance Check, top up

Myki Gate – at all city train station

Myki Reader – for touch on and off, Myki Money balance, Myki Pass details & expiry date

Myki Check (blue) – for checking only (status, balance, expiry date, last 10 transactions)

You can use Myki card for travelling on:

- Melbourne's trains, trams and buses
- V/Line trains between Melbourne and Eaglehawk/Epsom, Seymour, Traralgon, Waurin Ponds & Wendouree
- Buses within Geelong, Ballarat, Bendigo, Seymour and Latrobe Valley

Choose the best fare for your travels – Myki Money or Myki Pass

- If you travel often – 5 days a week or more, it is cheaper to choose Myki Pass (7 days, or anywhere between 28 and 365 days)
- If you do NOT travel often – less than 5 days a week, you can pay as you go with Myki Money.
