COMMITMENT TO RECONCILIATION

The Salvation Army acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of country throughout Australia and recognises their continuing connection to land, waters, and community.

We pay our respects to them and their cultures; and to Elders past, present and emerging. Our vision for reconciliation is to be a faith movement committed to equity, freedom and the righting of injustice.

What we do

Following the example of Jesus, we serve people—without discrimination and with no strings attached. We share faith and hope in our churches and other centres across Australia.

We advocate for a fair and just society, believing every person has dignity and value because they are created in the image of God.

We care and walk alongside Australians facing:
