

Refugee Discussion Sheet

By Major Ben Johnson

What is it about being different that makes people so fearful of others?

Why do we as human beings mistreat one another?

What is so important about having a place that you belong? What does that mean for us as Christians?

How can we as part of Christ's body, the church help to bring healing in our community?

What is God saying to you about the way you live?

Re. Leviticus 19:33-34 (NIV)

“ When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not mistreat them. ³⁴The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the Lord your God. ”

Different pasts, Shared Future

Refugee Week

