

Refugee Week

A prayer for refugees and people seeking asylum

Everlasting Father, you are the creator of heaven and earth. Thank you for the mercy and love you show to all people.

Lord, today we want to bring to you all who seek refuge in a foreign land, which they are now calling home, or wanting to make their home a safe place.

Father, we bring to you these issues of security and safety for our brothers and sisters around the world. Move the hearts of people to show them love and welcome. God, please bring harmony wherever they find themselves living.

I also pray for those who are still stranded in refugee camps. You are a God of freedom - who you set free will be free indeed.

In your mercy, please help those refugees who have fallen victim to human traffickers. Come to their aid and deliver them.

Dear Lord, I lift up in prayer all those working tirelessly to bring them relief. Continue to inspire their hearts towards generosity and compassion, that they will not grow cold.

Thank you, Lord, for all you have done and continue to do. We put our prayers and concerns into your hands and believe for this through your precious son, Jesus Christ. Amen
