

Lent Personal Reflections

First Sunday in Lent

Personal Reflection

What has been a wilderness experience for you?

God knows and shares the wilderness experience of being tested as a human.

Bring to Jesus your own times of wilderness and those of others.

Second Sunday in Lent

Personal Reflection

God made promises to Abram – of land, and people and blessing.

God wants to bless you with love, peace, joy and hope.

Open your heart and mind to receive the blessing of God in your life – and the lives of those around you.

Third Sunday in Lent

Personal Reflection

This girl is thirsty and drinking freely of the water.

Are you thirsty?

Are you longing for God?

Jesus is the life-giving water.

“If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.

Fourth Sunday in Lent

Personal Reflection

This Lent, do you identify with the prodigal son or the older brother?

Have you wandered away and rejoice in the loving embrace of God?

Or have you grown tired and feel more like a servant than a much-loved child of God?

Fifth Sunday in Lent

Personal Reflection

What was the most extravagant gift you have given to someone?

How was the gift received?

What is the most extravagant gift you have received?

What does the gift tell you about your relationship with that person?

How do you show your love and devotion to Jesus?

Sixth Sunday in Lent

Personal Reflection

In love, Jesus humbled himself and entered into death for us – in our place.

“For God so loved the world, he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

Take some time. What do you want to say to this Jesus?
