

National Youth Week (4-14 April)

Our story is love

Event planning guide

Youth week is an opportunity for EVERYONE to celebrate the achievements and contributions of young people. We can listen to the stories, ideas and concerns of our youth. We can engage with young people to have fun and take action together.

Our story is love

Before you get started:

- Involve young people in planning, running and participating in Youth Week events.
- Consider the needs and resources in your community.
- Research what other churches, services and schools are planning. Consider partnering or volunteering at one of these events. Or, if you are planning your own event, invite others in the community to join with you.
- Think about the safety aspects and submit your Mission Activities and Program (MAaP).

Suggestions:

- Host one or more smaller activities. Think about how you can make spaces where everyone in your community can:
 - CELEBRATE the achievements and contributions of young people
 - LISTEN to the stories, ideas and concerns of our youth
 - ENGAGE with young people to have fun and take action together
- Host a big event that incorporates lots of ideas. For example, run a Twilight Market:
 - With market stalls that feature products created by young people
 - Include an art competition
 - Invite young people to provide the music
 - Have a karaoke competition
 - Make spaces where young people can speak for five minutes each on issues they are passionate about
