

The Fall

---

1. Can you share anything which caught your attention, or helped you, in the talk?

2. Do you think there are questions people might ask about this subject?

3. What do you think was the downfall of those first people? Where did they go wrong?

4. In which ways might temptation and fall might follow the same pattern today?

5. The Bible describes sin in a variety of ways. Each one relates to something about God.

- God is pure and holy -- sin is impurity.
- God is Lord of all -- sin is rebellion.
- God is love -- sin is rejection.
- God is the Creator -- sin is breaking his laws.
- God created us for a purpose -- sin is missing the goal God has for us.

Which one of those speaks most to you?

6. It is said: 'We are not sinners because we sin; we sin because we are sinners.' What do you think that is saying?

7. Which of the five lost freedoms do you think most powerfully explains problems today?
