Concessions and Fee Assistance

Fee Assistance

Fee Assistance is a financial assistance program that can assist with course costs for eligible students who are experiencing financial hardship.

To apply, students must submit an online application form and supporting documents each time they would like support towards an eligible course cost.

 If eligible, CIT fee concessions are available in addition to Fee Assistance.*

Further information, and the application form can be found at Fee Assistance. If you need additional assistance please see CITSA or CIT Student Services.

Fee Concessions

A 50% concession applies to all students (including Australian Apprentices) who are in receipt of Pensioner Concession Card (PCC), Health Care Card, Veteran Affairs Pension, or Veteran Affairs Children's Education Scheme Allowance (VACESA).

You will need to provide evidence of eligibility for concession. You will need to provide at least one of the following:

- Recent Income Statement - Centrelink form. These statements are available on request from Centrelink and must show your name, address, type of benefit and date benefit commenced.
- Current Letter of Confirmation - Centrelink form. This is the letter sent to advise recipients of their Centrelink entitlements and payment arrangements. It must show your name, address, type of benefit, and date benefit commenced. CIT Student Services will check that the fees due date is covered.
- Pensioner Concession Card (PCC) or Health Care Card
 - And complete a Centrelink Client Consent Form \(PDF File 563.3 KB\)
- Veteran Affairs Pension - Gold Card
- Veteran Affairs Children's Education Scheme Allowance (VACESA).
 - Recipient must provide the notification from VACESA advising of successful application of the Long Tan Bursary.

In addition, Australian Apprentices may still be eligible for a concession, by providing evidence (in the form of payslips) demonstrating they are a low income earner or apply for financial hardship circumstances. Please enquire at any CIT Student Services Shopfront.

For more information, download the Concession Flyer \(PDF File 29Kb\).

Fee Payment Plans

Students should enquire about a fee payment plan at time of enrolling.

Payment plans can be set up for students to make payments throughout the current semester via weekly, fortnightly, or monthly due dates.
