

Situation 1

You have just finished your weekly shopping at your local supermarket on Saturday night. When you are walking to the car park, you see someone lying on the carpark not moving. It is a young man and you can see that he is seriously injured. You can also see that his bag is on the floor and it is messy. There are no one else around. You cannot ask someone at the location to help you or help the man.

What do you do?

Situation 2

You are driving home from work at 1 o'clock in the morning. You had to work late today because it was busy time in the office. As your car approaching your house, you can see that 3 unknown people are taking TV, jewellery and other valuable things out of your next door neighbour's house. You know that your neighbour is on holiday to Bali. The street is very quiet and there are no one else around.

What do you do?

Scenario 3

You are visiting your friend - Maryam on Sunday afternoon. You rang the door bell. Maryam opened the door and gave you a big hug. She said her husband - Ahmed is in the backyard. As soon as you walk in, you can smell gas inside the house. You guess the gas is leaking and you know it is dangerous. You immediately find Ahmed in the backyard. Then, you help both of them get out of the house.

What do you do next?