

The Salvation Army Services

The Salvation Army provides all social services without discrimination.

Alcohol and other drug services

A program for people experiencing alcohol or drug problems

Aged care

Affordable aged care support for older Australians

Financial Counselling

Free & confidential personalised advice to manage money problems and to avoid future issues

Disasters and emergencies

Services to help people impacted by disasters

Financial Assistance

Support with immediate basic needs in time of crisis

Family and Domestic Violence

Services to support women & children impacted by family/domestic violence

Housing

Support for individuals & families who are homeless or at risk of homelessness

Finding employment

Assistance in finding a job through employment support programs

Salvos Stores

Affordable recycled clothing & furniture

Positive Lifestyle Program

Confidential program to help people change their way of life & reach their potential

Rural support

Support for farmer or rural worker in a regional or remote area – emotional, spiritual & physical help

Youth services

Safe space for young people to find support in a range of areas – housing, education, drug & alcohol, social/life skills etc

For more information on the above services and other services by the Salvation Army, please ask the Salvation Army representative at your Centre or visit <https://www.salvationarmy.org.au/about-us/our-services/>