UNIVERSITY and COLLEGES

Universities are mostly government-owned tertiary education institutions with a wide range of fields of study. Students start with undergraduate course or bachelor degree and continue with postgraduate studies such as master's or doctorates degree. Students can study full-time or part-time.

Colleges also offer undergraduate and postgraduate courses however they usually specialise in particular field of study, for example creative arts, business and agriculture. Some colleges are privately-owned and aligned by a religious belief, for example a Christian or Islamic College.

FEES – TAFE, University, College

- Fees and charges for universities, TAFE and public colleges is payable by students and some are subsidised by the government.
- Undergraduate students who are citizen or permanent residents of Australia are eligible to apply for Commonwealth Supported Places (CSPs), where the government covers part of the fee and students pay the rest.
- Only students enrolled in CSPs can apply for HECS-HELP, which is a loan to pay university/TAFE fees.
- Temporary residents or overseas citizens are not eligible for CSP and HECS-HELP, and must pay as full-fee paying international students.
