We wait on you to speak Move, move again in pow'r We need you here this hour You hold the victory

Though the earth may shake And the storm may rise
You remain, Above it all

As we lift our eyes
To declare, the battle is the Lords

We believe that you died and rose again
We believe by that same power we are saved
We believe that through you all things are possible We believe, Oh Lord,
We believe.

Peace, peace that will surpass The fear that's in our hearts Our Lord,
