

Good and Bad Habits - Sharing faith

Discussion questions

When have you heard someone share their faith in a gentle and respectful way?

Take a moment to look at some Psalms. Share one example of a proclamation of God's goodness.

Can you think of a time when your actions didn't reflect your beliefs? What was the result? Are there any changes you need to make?

How do you respond when an opportunity arises for you to share about your faith?

How could you share your faith in a gentle and respectful way?

- ☐ Make a list of 5 things that you might regularly say to people you meet - adjust them to proclaim God's goodness.
- ☐ Adjust the signature on your email account to proclaim God's goodness.
- ☐ Make change so that your actions are more aligned with your beliefs.
- ☐ Write out your story of faith - think about the key points of how you came to know Jesus and the difference knowing Jesus makes in your life.
- ☐ In a small group or with your family, take turns sharing about your faith.

How could you encourage and support someone else to form good habits for sharing their faith?
