

Well first, it points to our Christian beginnings.

The people who started The Salvation Army experienced the love of Jesus firsthand, and it totally transformed them. Through his love, Jesus saved them – from hopelessness, loneliness and even their own selfishness.