

Today, the love of Jesus continues to drive everything we do.

Whether it's setting up evacuation centres during disasters, supporting people recovering from addiction, offering community meals, or meeting for church – it's all about showing and sharing the love of Jesus.

