

They believed that Jesus offers a wonderful, life-changing 'salvation'. And they desperately wanted everyone to experience it.

So they made it their mission to tell people about Jesus.

That's how we became
'The Salvation Army'.