SUMMER PSALMS

PSALM 136

Major Tracy Briggs

- What stood out to you from what Tracy shared?
- What words or pictures come to mind when you hear the word 'endless'? (they can be positive or negative)
- Tracy points out that there is a repeating pattern in Psalm 136. Each time the leader says a line, the people say, "His love endures forever".
- Why do you think it is helpful to declare and repeat these words? What can we do to remind ourselves of God's incredible love?
- Tracy shares about a difficult time in her life when she witnessed God's love in action. When have you seen or felt God's endless love at work?
- Romans 8:38-39 (NIV) says:

"³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹ neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

There may be times when we don't feel God's love, but Paul declares that nothing in Heaven or Earth can separate us from God's love.

In what ways does this give you hope or encourage you?
- Tracy encourages us to spend time thanking God for his endless love, and the ways we have seen his love at work.

As a group, spend time praising God for his endless love. Take turns sharing a one-line prayer of thanks or praise. After each person shares, say, "His love endures forever, in unison."

For example:

Thank you for my family and friends...

His love endures forever

Thank you for forgiving me and loving me...

His love endures forever

I praise you because in all the chaos, you are still good...

His love endures forever

I praise you because you guide me when I don't know what to do...

His love endures forever

Thank you for providing for my needs...

His love endures forever
