SUMMER PSALMS

PSALM 23

Major Esther Ong

- What stood out for you from what Esther shared?
- When was the last time you read Psalm 23?
- Can you think of a time when this psalm spoke to you personally? What was happening at the time?
- Esther asks, "When was the last time you felt the presence of the Shepherd and experienced true rest and restoration to your soul?" Can you think of a time?
- Esther shared that she had many life experiences that testify to God's provision. Is there an example of this in your life?
- Can you think of a time when you have needed to trust in God? What happened?
- In Verse 2 it says, "He makes me lie down in green pastures..." Has there been a time where God has made it clear that you needed to rest? How did he let you know?
- Esther asks, "Have you ever wondered if you are where you're meant to be?" How do you know you are on the right path?
- In Verse 6, David says, "Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life." Can we also say this with confidence? How can we be sure?
- In what ways does this psalm encourage or inspire you?
- Based on what we've talked about, what is one thing you would like prayer for today?

Spend time praying for each other about the things you shared.
