

The Christmas Story

Box 1 – The Angel Has your heart ever had a big secret to share?

Did it tickle your tummy?

{Give your tummy a tickle }

Did excitement bubble and make you grin wide? Well, God had a secret

He couldn't hide! He'd planned something wonderful, loving, and true
— But He needed a messenger to share it with you! Who could it be?

Let's take a quick look...

{Open Box 1 and hand out Angel
Jenga}

An angel named Gabriel stepped from God's book! He flew down to earth with a message so bright, A baby was coming — a gift full of light!

Box 2 – Mary Gabriel flew straight to Nazareth town, Where Mary was standing, wearing a frown.

{ can you shown me a sad face }

He said, “Hello Mary, don’t be afraid, God’s chosen you for the plan He has made!” “You’ll have a baby — God’s Son, His great plan, A King who will rule forever — that’s the man!”

{Open Box 2 and hand out Mary Jenga }

Mary gasped softly, “But how can this be?” Gabriel smiled, “With God, you will see. Nothing’s impossible — trust and believe. God’s promise of love you soon will receive!”

Box 3 – Joseph Gabriel had one more person to find — A carpenter, Joseph, so gentle and kind. But Joseph was worried — his heart full of doubt, Till Gabriel came and helped him work it out! “Joseph,” said Gabriel, “don’t be afraid. Marry sweet Mary — your part has been made. Her child is from heaven, His name will be Jesus, God’s promise of love and forgiveness He’ll teach us!” Do you think Joseph was brave that day?

{Show me your bravest pose —
hooray!}

Jenga}

Box 4 – Jesus

Now Mary and Joseph, waiting with joy,
Prepared for the birth of this baby boy.
But then came a message — they had to go far!

A king's decree said, “Go where your families are.”

So they packed up their things — quick as can be!

Let's count their steps — one, two,
three!

{Count to 10 on fingers}

To Bethlehem town they travelled at last ,

But every inn said, “No rooms! We're full, go past!”

At last, in a stable with animals near,
They rested together — their baby so
dear.

{Make your favourite barn animal noises }

That night in the quiet, the promise came true, A baby was born — and the world felt new! God's treasure was wrapped in a manger small, Jesus our Saviour, born for us all!

Jesus' Jenga}

Box 5 – The Shepherds Out in the fields, ‘neath stars shining bright, Some shepherds were watching their sheep through the night. When suddenly, light filled the sky all around!

{Show your best scared face — wow, what a sound!}

An angel appeared, “Don’t tremble with fright! Good news has arrived — it happened tonight! A Saviour is born — go, hurry and see, The baby in Bethlehem, laid on the hay — He’s the key!” Then more angels joined in — oh, what a sight! Singing “Glory to God!” in the bright starlight. The shepherds jumped up and ran to adore, The baby, the King, the Lord they’d waited for.

🌟 Box 6 – The Wise Men Far in the east, some wise men were gazing, At stars in the sky — it was truly amazing! They studied and wondered, then shouted, “Aha! A new King is born — let’s follow that star!”
(Make a star with your fingers and hold it high ✨)

They packed up their gifts and journeyed afar, Guided each night by that shimmering star. At last they found Jesus, their hearts full of grace, They knelt down in worship, right there in that place.

(Open Box 6 and hand out Wise Men Jenga)

Let’s sing about that star so bright: 🎵
Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star... 🎵

A Mirror inside - oh wow, what a view!
Who's in the mirror? It's me ... and it's you!

We are the gift that God treasures
most,
The ones that He loves - from coast to coast.

When you give Him your heart, heaven
sings loud,
The angels rejoice - a heavenly crowd!
God gave us Jesus to right every wrong,

To fill our hearts with love and song.
So what does God want this Christmas
day?
He wants your heart - to love and obey.

Box 7 – The Mirror

Now the story is told — or is it quite done?

There's one more box, the very last one!

It says, "To God." What could it be?

Let's open and look — come, look with me!

{Open Box 7 and show the mirror}

A mirror inside — oh wow, what a view!

Who's in the mirror? It's me... and it's you!

We are the gift that God treasures most,

The ones that He loves — from coast to coast.

When you give Him your heart, heaven
sings loud,

The angels rejoice — a heavenly crowd!

God gave us Jesus to right every wrong,

To fill our hearts with love and song.

So what does God want this Christmas
day?

{Make a heart shape

He wants your heart — to love and obey.
