Indoors.

THE GAME

Keep the balloon in the air the longest and win. Game is played best with two people at a time so that you can have a play off at the end. Each person bounces their balloon on their heads to keep it in the air - no hands, feet or other objects to help.

The winner is the one who keeps their balloon up in the air the longest. Make sure where you are playing this game that area is clear so that the kids won't trip over anything.
